

The FCC needs to delay it's June 2nd meeting on media consolidation until a series of nationwide meetings are held. The public deserves more info. before this issue is decided. Media consolidation has many more negatives at this time than positives for the public interest.